GRAPHICS UPDATED

The graphics on our squads have recently been updated. We went with some cleaner lines and brought some of the decals up to state mandated codes. The new graphics will be implemented as we get new squads. Thanks to Investigator Gary Okins for all his efforts on this project.

OVERHEATED

On July 21st a report was received of a missing person. It was later determined the missing person was actually at the hospital. He had been transported there after showing up at a residence acting very disoriented and did not know his name. The victim of heat exhaustion had a core temperature of 107°. Take care to stay cool and hydrated.

TWO BROUGHT IN FROM OUR "MOST WANTED" LIST

Last week Jeffrey Le tray Jones was captured in Oklahoma and was returned to Minnesota. Mr. Jones had two warrants, one for 1st Degree Property Damage and the other was a Predatory Offender Violation.

On July 15th the Owatonna Police Department arrested Fabian Cervantez for Possession of Stolen Property.

SHARING A CELL WITH CHARLES MANSON

Pictured here is Bill Davis, who made a stop at the Steele County Detention Center on July 11, 2011. His presentation to the inmates was a very moving one.

He recounts sharing a prison cell with Charles Manson, a man indicted for 27 counts of murder. Mr. Davis himself was also looking at 920 years in prison for armed robbery and many drug-related crimes. Since his release Mr. Davis has travel the U.S. and 24 other countries telling his story of faith, hope, forgiveness and healing.
